

How to Say the Right Thing to the Right Person

Adapted from the article "How not to say the wrong thing" by Susan Silk and Barry Goldman ~ April 07, 2013 Los Angeles Times

This simple guide works in all kinds of crisis situations.

Primary Rule: Comfort IN, Burdens OUT

The Afflicted

Receive Comfort from Anyone, Unburden to anyone

Immediate Family

Give Comfort to the Afflicted, Receive Comfort from Larger Rings, Unburden to Larger Rings

Extended Family / Close Friends

Give Comfort to Smaller Rings, Receive Comfort from Larger Rings, Unburden to Larger Rings

Friends

Give Comfort to Smaller Rings, Receive Comfort from Larger Rings, Unburden to Larger Rings

Acquaintances

Give Comfort to Smaller Rings, Receive Comfort from People Who Don't Know The Afflicted, Unburden to People Who Don't Know The Afflicted

Strangers

Give Comfort to Those In Rings
